

Volunteer Interpreter Opportunity Available At Boston Housing Authority (BHA)

Boston Housing Authority • Office of Civil Rights • 52 Chauncy Street 9th Floor • Boston, MA 02111

Dear Prospective Volunteer:

The Boston Housing Authority (BHA), the largest public housing authority in New England and whose mission is to provide affordable housing, is looking for volunteers to interpret for the BHA residents and housing applicants. Ideal candidates are individuals who are energetic, patient and proficient in English and, but not limited to, one of the following languages: Albanian, Arabic, Cape Verdean, Chinese, French, Haitian Creole, Italian, Khmer, Russian, Somali, Spanish, Polish, Portuguese, and Vietnamese. It is a volunteer (no pay) position, but it will be a great opportunity to work on your language and interpretation skills, and to learn about housing policies that impact low and moderate income, elderly, and disabled persons. Volunteer interpreters will receive training and serve on an on-call basis (about 10 hours a month). If you are interested in becoming a volunteer interpreter, please complete and submit the following application to BHA. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Vivian W. Lee
BHA Language Access Coordinator
